

Kern County

SHERIFF

Work Release Program

1415 Truxtun Ave. Ste. 100, Bakersfield, CA 93301

Monday – Friday 8:00 – 4:00, Phone: (661) 868-5501

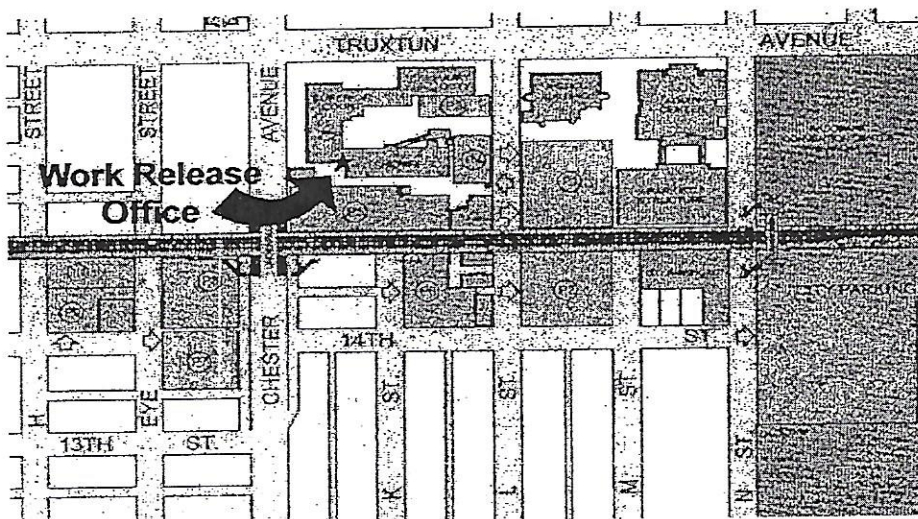

The Work Release Program is an alternative to serving time in jail

You must contact the Work Release Office by phone at 661-868-5501, within 5 days of your sentencing hearing. Please make sure to have your case number available when you call. ******

The Work Release office has moved to the Metropolitan Court Building, at 1415 Truxtun Ave. We are located on the south side of the building. Enter through the Jail entrance, glass doors and the Work Release Office will be on the right.

Prior to enrolling in the Program there are certain requirements you should know:

- You will get time served credits and half time credits.
- You will work at least 8 hours per day. Various work days and hours are available
- You must be able to perform physical labor
- There is an administrative fee of $60 plus $3.00 per day for every day you participate in the program
 - This fee must be paid, in cash or money order, on the day of your appointment no exceptions.
- Work sites are provided throughout Kern County; however, you must provide your own transportation to and from the work site.
- You must provide your own lunch
- If you have medical or mental health problems, you may be required to obtain a physicians medical release prior to participating

DIRECTIONS: From HWY 99: take California Ave. exit and go east. Turn left of Chester Ave. and then right on Truxtun Ave. Turn right on L Street, park and walk through the glass doors on the south side of the Metropolitan Court Building.